

The Panola Weekly Star.

ESTABLISHED 1855.

J. L. DUNN, Editor and Proprietor

VOLUME XXVI.

SARDIS, PANOLA COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1882.

TERMS: $2.00 Per Year.

NUMBER 17.

ADLER & BROTHER,
201 Main Street, Opposite Court Square,
Adrie's Old Stand, Memphis, Tenn.

Large Assortment of Hand and Machine made

BODIES AND SHOES

Of all descriptions, in the city, at

Lowest Possible Prices.

HONOR AND SQUARE DEALING," OUR MOTTO.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Compiled from Various Sources.

PERSONAL AND POLITICAL.

Ex-GOVERNOR RAMSEY, of the Utah Commission, states that the leading politicians offered to make no attempt to vote, and have kept their word. The Mormons can carry the election by large majorities, and will probably nominate Mayor Rawson, of Salt Lake City, for delegate in Congress. The editor of the Edmunds law will be the standard-bearer of the party, and were so determined that a police patrol had to be called to disperse them.

JENKINS, J. K., Lawyer, United States Collector at Mobile, Ala., was assaulted and severely injured by a negro politician at a church meeting the other night.

REV. G. B. SIMONS, Baptist minister of Greenwood, N. Y., charged with writing love letters to a young lady of his congregation, has resigned.

Mrs. BREWER, on the thirty-fifth anniversary of her connection with Plymouth church, took occasion to state that of late years her beliefs have not changed, and to avow his responsibility alone to his congregation.

HENRY GEORGE, in a speech at Cork, Ireland, urged nationalization of land as the solution of the land question not only in Ireland, but in the United States, where he said he saw the question coming to the front.

BANCROFT, the historian, celebrated his eighty-third birthday at Newport, R. I., and Attorney-General Brewster took part in the entertainment.

The election in Georgia passed off quietly. Stephens' majority is estimated at 60,000. Returns from Delaware show a small Democratic majority.

The Democrats of Connecticut have nominated Thomas M. Waller for Governor and George G. Sumner for Lieutenant-Governor.

ADELAINE PHILLIPS, the famous contralto, died at Carlsbad the other day. She was born at Stratford-on-Avon, in 1853, and ten years later made her debut as an actress in Boston. She attracted the notices of Juilliard, and funds were raised to give her a musical education. She first appeared in opera in New York in 1866, and in Paris in 1868. She had a fine place at Marshfield, Mass.

HENRY C. FISK, clerk of the Pacific Railroad Committee of the House of Representatives, died June 16. It is feared that he lost his reason, as his mother and brother died in the same asylum at Utica, N. Y. He was a colonel in the Union army.

WILL ROSE, the Illinois son on a bicycle, has arrived at Cheyenne, Wyo.

DE LESSEPS testified that Arabi exerted himself to maintain the neutrality of the Suez Canal.

The peace negotiations between Chile and Peru are broken off because of the refusal of Chile to abate any of her demands.

NEGOTIATIONS ON THE POWERS on the Egyptian question are progressing favorably. The exertions of Germany to bring about a friendly understanding are meeting with considerable success.

CRIMES AND CASTAELLS.

The reward offered for the arrest of the Taylor brothers, the Tennessee murderers, has been increased to $10,000, and the State will probably make it larger. The desperadoes are said to be in the mountains, sixty miles south of Chattanooga.

EDWARD LEWIS was drowned in the Ohio, near Concord, Ky., the other night. A child capsized.

HARVARD professors pronounce the new comet inconclusive.

MORRIS KNAPP, a livery man, was thrown from a carriage and fatally injured near Jackson, Mich., Oct. 3.

A TRAIN ON THE MONT ALTO road was derailed by a cow, near Chambersburg, Pa., the other day. Nine passengers were injured. Mrs. Dilow, Dr. Hayes, J. G. Hess and Conductor Fahnestock may not recover.

WHITE FOOLING WITH A gun the other day a farmer named Morrison, living near Nevada, Mo., shot and killed one of his neighbors, named Large.

THE KREICH and Geritzki families occupy cottages near Norwood Park, a suburb of Chicago. A well on Kreich's place supplied both houses with drinking-water until recently, when a misunderstanding arose and the Geritzkis were forbidden to draw another bucket of water. Julia, a Polish domestic employed by Geritzki, went to the well the other morning and was killed by a charge of slugs from a rifle in the hands of Rudolph Kreich, eight years old.

JOSEPH BRADLEY, a horse-thief, escaped from the custody of the police at Hagerstown, Md., the other day, by opening fire on them with a revolver. Deputy Sheriff Benner was badly wounded.

ZERA SMITH, aged 32, killed himself with a revolver, near Tipton, Ind., the other day, leaving a wife and three children. He had been tried for larceny.

SAMUEL HALL, who was assaulted and robbed by John Jackson, near Jackson, Ohio, a few days ago, died on the 4th. Jackson has been captured and made a full confession. He said he wanted money to give to a woman.

THE mangled body of an unknown man was found on the railroad track near Williamson, W. Va., the other day. Both legs were cut off below the knee, and the body cut and bruised. It is thought he attempted to board a moving train and fell under the wheels. There is no clew to his identity, except a small Catholic prayer-book bearing the name of J. M. Carmichael on the fly-leaf.

A LYAKIAGAN caused a collision on the Baltimore & Ohio, near Flushing, Pa., the other day. Sanders, a brakeman, was killed; Conductor Ruffer lost a leg, and another brakeman was badly hurt.

CHARLES GOSHI, a music dealer of Columbus, Ohio, has been arrested for violating the condition of his pardon from the Penitentiary, which was to abstain from tobacco and cigars.

GEORGE HUNTINGTON, of Amherst, Mass., his wife, and four children, were seriously injured.

INDIAN COMMISSIONER PRICE is sending circulars to agents to notify the tribes that they must earn their own livelihood herself.

THE new Commissioners of Alabama Claims held their first session in Washington on the 4th. Judge H. G. Wells presiding. There still remains in the treasury $9,500,000 of the Geneva award. The claims filed number 145, mostly from New Orleans and San Francisco, for clothes and wages lost by seamen, though fifty-five are for the payment of war premiums. It is deemed probable that over four thousand claims will be presented before the commission.

THIRTY incendiary fires have occurred in the past six months at Youngstown, Ohio, the recent fire being the most serious.

LIEUT. WELSH, commanding the Pensacola Navy-yard, reports to the Navy Department that an incendiary fire broke out in Warrington at 2 a. m. on the 6th. Many dwellings were destroyed, and most of the business portion of the town is gone.

ANDREW FRANK, a lame veteran, was partially injured by a street-car in Omaha, Neb., the other night.

THE police of Dallas, Texas, have arrested a man supposed to be Charles Sanders, who murdered Officer Prints, of St. Louis, on June 1, 1873, and who has ever since evaded arrest. The accused, however, denied his ability to prove that justice is on the wrong track.

MEXICAN robbers at Tacubaya killed Frederic Hubli, the tax collector, mortally wounded his wife, and took $4,000 from the safe.

MISCELLANEOUS.

JEWISH families to the number of six hundred have left Preßburg, Austria, as a result of the riots.

In accordance with the requirements of the river and harbor bill, the Secretary of War has awarded the contract to the lowest responsible bidder for the levee work in the Lower Mississippi.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Compiled from Various Sources.

PERSONAL AND POLITICAL.

The American District Telegraph Company in Chicago discovered a lot of striking messengers the other day and verified for others. The Mormons have carried the election by large majorities, and will probably nominate Mayor Rawson, of Salt Lake City, for delegate in Congress. The editor of the Edmunds law will be the standard-bearer of the party, and were so determined that a police patrol had to be called to disperse them.

Mr. BREWER,

of the Philadelphia

is the

the